

From: James Sweetman
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/15/02 9:27am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The proposed settlement between Microsoft and the government does nothing to deter this arrogant behemoth from continuing to bully the rest of the industry into doing its bidding. Microsoft has a monopoly on the operating system level, and continues to illegally extend this monopoly by requiring users to purchase unwanted features. The settlement does nothing to address this, and will only encourage Microsoft to continue its illegal acts.

James Sweetman
Arlington, VA